Qamoose Alfaaz in Quranic Arabic and contemporary English is the scientific approach to explain the linguistic excellence of Quranic root letters, Quranic vocabulary and grammar with the detailed constructs of the derived forms of trilateral verbs.

The dictionary also explains AlAerab (Inflection) of each word. AlAerab is the change of the last syllable of the Quranic words that govern them either explicitly or implicitly.

Famous and well known research study of the entire Quran by Abdullah Abbas AnNadwi, a linguistic scholar of Quranic vocabulary.

Authentic and verified for accuracy.

Enhanced Graphics added for formatting and App organization.

Individual Quranic roots separated and indexed for quick and easy access.
